WHAT WE DO

Globalization and the free market philosophy, the forces that shaped our present economy, are creating new customer demands and needs, thereby challenging organizations to raise their performance. It is logical that the ensuing competition is compelling organizations to develop products and services faster, cheaper, and better in order to maintain or increase competitive advantage in the global market place. Further, these global forces are impacting the way we manage projects. However, history shows that globalization and the free market philosophy are not new; what has changed is the availability of advanced technology systems and their extensive application for managing projects effectively.

Global Projects is organized in a flexible world-class matrix team structure of individual professionals and strategic partners. In harmonization with your business function or type of consultancy; a dedicated customized project team will be formed specifically to your company through the project life cycle. When required, our teams are also able to take a practical action on your company's behalf to fulfill any business needs for any short or long term commitments.

We are specialized in outsourcing, acquisition, talent sourcing, HR Policy drafting and implementation tracking, job evaluation, marketing, events and product or services market introduction and management, operational services, implementation, knowledge management and knowledge transfer and even train your future talents.

SRI LANKAN EXPERTISE

We provide optimum solutions to our clients in every region and help ensure their global success. We provide integrated services from the creation of well-balanced strategies in terms of "maximizing corporate values" and "feasibility and viability" to the realization of those strategies.

Most team members are allocated to projects according to their knowledge and availability. Global projects allow these team members to work together independently of their geographical situation, without the added costs and time needed for relocation. On the other hand, meetings across locations can generate many misunderstandings, as they rely mostly on verbal communication, losing an important part of the content that could be

Client organizations can use the framework as a starting point to detect which areas must be addressed before starting a global project. An organizational change program can be put in place to implement best practices in the main areas, improving the effectiveness of communication, collaboration, and management across borders.
